Consultation on the Financial Holding Companies Bill

MAS

Monetary Authority of Singapore

The Monetary Authority of Singapore (“MAS”) published a public consultation paper on 17 February 2012 to invite comments on a proposed regulatory framework for financial holding companies (“FHCs”). The consultation paper had set out the considerations in designating an FHC for regulation and the regulatory approach to FHCs and financial groups held under an FHC (“FHC groups”). Central to the FHC regulatory framework is the enactment of a new Financial Holding Companies Act (“FHC Act”).

2 MAS has taken into account the comments received during the consultation in drafting the Financial Holding Companies Bill (“FHC Bill”). Annex A summarises the key provisions in the FHC regulatory framework. In addition to policy proposals that were previously consulted in February 2012, the draft FHC Bill contains a new requirement for designated FHCs to have a chief executive who is principally responsible for the conduct and management of activities at the FHC group.¹ This consultation paper invites comments on the draft FHC Bill in Annex B.

3 Electronic submission of comments is encouraged. Please submit your written comments by 26 November 2012 to:

4 Draft Regulations and Notices setting out detailed requirements pursuant to relevant sections in the FHC Act will be issued for consultation at a later date. These Regulations and Notices will set out, inter alia, rules and standards on the following:

- (a) capital requirements ;
- (b) prudential limits, including large exposures, equity investment and property investment limits;
- (c) corporate governance; and
- (d) submission of information.
