ANNUAL RETURN: FORM 14 - ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Please note that for investment linked - overseas insurance fund"ILP-OIF" we certainly expected a negative provision for adverse deviation "PAD" due to the change in lapse direction. This, to give higher positive non-unit reserves overall.

All over previous years we didn't expect any non-unit reserve, hence, lapse direction was based on negative reserves. For this year-end, with the arising positive non-unit lapse direction has changed to be determined by positive non-unit reserves instead.

In detail, with the changed lapse direction, PAD cash-flows under MCL will cause the positive non-unit reserves to be more positive and negative reserves will result in more negative. This reflects the investment link feature that when a policy is expected to make profit, reserve will become negative and reserve is positive when the policy is expected to make loss.

In essence, when lapses become higher, profitable policies will make less profit and loss making policies shall reduce their loss. So, higher lapses will lead to less reserve in absolute amounts despite of whether they are positive or negative and, this year, we changed the lapse direction to be lower lapse.

| Hence, for OIF, most of the policies, that have high negative reserves, will continue to have greater negative reserves upon shock (under MCL) which result in negative PAD compared to best estimates. | | | | | |

1563L SWISS LIFE (SINGAPORE) PTE. LTD.

| As at 31 December 2016 all equity investments held by Swiss Life Singapore were related to underlying assets of our ILP policies where the investment risk is borne by the policyholder. |
|--|
| Having regard to the above, the second schedule of the Insurance (Valuation and Capital) Regulations 2004, section 3a, states the following: |
| 'In the calculation of the total risk requirement, an insurer shall not include () in the case of an investment-linked fund, the part of the fund relating to the unit reserves of the policies of the fund determined in the manner provided in regulation 20". |
| Since the equity investments are therefore part of our unit reserves, there is no room for reporting equity investment risk requirements for none of our funds. |
